5.1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a.) No Insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. b.) No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
5.2	Any person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a “legitimate purpose” shall be considered an “insider” for purposes of these regulations and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such unpublished price sensitive information in compliance with these regulations.
5.3	However, an unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company; b) not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations and subsequent amendments thereto but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being affected in such forms as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

For the purpose of clause 5.2, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential except for the purpose mentioned in clause 5.2 above and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

The board of directors or head(s) of the organisation of every person required to handle unpublished price sensitive information shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the nature of unpublished price sensitive information and the names of such persons who have shared the information and also the names of such persons with whom information is shared under this regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such database shall not be outsourced and shall be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

The board of directors or head(s) of the organisation of every person required to handle unpublished price sensitive information shall ensure that the structured digital database is preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from the Board regarding any investigation or enforcement proceedings, the relevant information in the structured digital database shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings.

5.4 No insider shall trade in securities of the company when he is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information:

Explanation –When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following:-

- (i) When the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between insiders and were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of regulation 3 of SEBI (SAST) Regulations, 2011 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained under sub-regulation (3) of regulation 3 of these regulations.

Provided further that such off-market trades shall be reported by the insiders to the company within two working days. the Company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

	(ii) the transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision; Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained by either person under sub-regulation (3) of regulation 3 of these regulations. (iii) the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction. (iv) the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations. (v) In case of non- individual insiders :- <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive, information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and b. appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached ; (vi) the trades were made pursuant to a trading plan in accordance with clause no. 6 of this code.
5.5	All information shall be handled within the organisation on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
5.6	The Company shall follow the Chinese wall procedures and processes to prevent the inappropriate or unauthorized communication of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI). The Chinese wall separates areas that have access to UPSI from those who do not have such access. The Designated employees working inside the area are prohibited from communicating any such UPSI except on need to know basis. The prior approval of the department head will be required for crossing such wall and having access to such UPSI.
5.7	In the case of connected persons the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, shall be on such connected persons and in other cases, the onus would be on the Board.
5.8	The Board may specify such standards and requirements, from time to time, as it may deem necessary for the purpose of these regulations.
6.	Trading Plans :
6.1	An Insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan in the form attached as Annexure-I for dealing in the securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer of the Company for approval and public disclosure, pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

6.2	Such trading plan shall:– (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan; (ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which quarterly results and annual result are required to be announced by the company and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results; (iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months. (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence; (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and their intervals at or dates on which such trades shall be effected. (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
6.3	The compliance officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings in the form enclosed as Annexure-II, as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per the provisions of the Regulations. Provided that pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan. Provided further that trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.
6.4	The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and it shall be mandatorily have to be implemented without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan. However, the trading plan shall not be commenced if at the time of formulation of trading plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information which has not become generally available at the time of commencement of implementation and in such event, the Compliance Officer shall confirm that the commencement of trading plan ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company as per approved trading plan, coincides with the date of closure of trading window announced by the Compliance officer.
6.5	Upon approval of trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the same to the Stock Exchanges.
7.	Trading Window and Closure / Opening thereof :
7.1	“Trading Window” means trading period of the Stock Exchange which is available for trading in the Company’s securities.
7.2	The trading window shall be closed when the compliance officer determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such

unpublished price sensitive information relates. Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed. The Compliance Officer/authorized persons shall communicate/intimate the trading window closure period to all Designated Persons through email or any other prescribed mode. Irrespective of whether such intimation has been received or not, Designated Persons governed by this Code shall mandatorily verify with the Compliance Officer on the status of the Trading Window before executing any trade in the Securities of the Company. Ignorance of the closure of the Trading Window or being unaware of closure of Trading Window shall not justify any trades executed by Designated Persons during such period.

Every Designated Person should advise his/ her Immediate Relatives of the Trading Window period during which Trading in the Securities of the Company is prohibited.

Trading restriction period shall be made applicable from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results.

The trading window restrictions mentioned above shall not apply in respect of –
